Fredrik Schedin New Partner at Kilpatrick Townsend

STOCKHOLM (9 January 2017) – Kilpatrick Townsend & Stockton announced today the addition of Fredrik Schedin as a partner in the Stockholm office. Fredrik has extensive experience in construction and dispute resolution, and is appointed as an arbitrator within his specialized areas. Fredrik joins the firm from AG Advokat and started on January 1, 2017.

“It is very exciting to be part of Kilpatrick Townsend's strong construction team and to further develop the practice in collaboration with other members of the team,” says Fredrik Schedin.

“We are very pleased to have Fredrik as a new partner at the firm. Recruitment is part of our strategy to strengthen areas where we already have a solid market position and broaden our offering in our specialized areas. Our construction and dispute resolution activities have developed significantly in recent years, and with Fredrik as a new member we will have the opportunity to grow and expand our activities further,” says Fredrik Ahlqvist, Office Managing Partner of the Stockholm office.
