William Um Quoted by Law360 re: "Calif. Justices May Ease Policyholders' Road To Recovery"

December 6, 2017

Kilpatrick Townsend's William Um was recently interviewed by Law360 re: "Calif. Justices May Ease Policyholders' Road To Recovery." The article discusses California's high court recent decision on whether a former pesticide manufacturer must deplete all its lower-level policies before it can tap into valuable excess policies to cover environmental damage claims. Attorneys say a contrary ruling, which would instead allow the company to target carriers in a single policy year, could speed policyholders' path to recovery.
