

Apparel, Accessories & Luxury Goods

In Style

Keeping pace with the rapidly-changing fashion world — a trillion-plus dollar global industry — requires legal counsel who truly understands the segment and its unique challenges. From startup to IP protection to litigation and beyond, we represent designers, retailers, manufacturers, distributors, and suppliers of apparel, jewelry, handbags, footwear, and other related non-luxury and luxury goods in the U.S. and around the world. As industry thought leaders, some of the world's most recognized brands seek our advice when facing complex business issues involving agreement negotiation and drafting, branding and IP protection, licensing, and litigation and dispute resolution.
